

Nisqually Indian Tribe
Request for Qualifications

Consultant for the Nisqually
Green Team Initiative

The Nisqually Indian Tribe is requesting Statements of Qualifications from qualified individuals to work in a key consultant role on the Nisqually Green Team Initiative. The Nisqually Green Team will be responsible for insuring that a Green Team action plan is in place and implemented for the Nisqually community, with an initial focus on the 2016 Canoe Journey. The consultant will work with Green Team Coordinator and other involved programs and staff in organizing and carrying out the Green Team plan.

Individuals interested in being considered for serving in a consultant role for the project should provide the following information:

1. Name.
2. Track Record in Completing Similar Green Team Projects
3. Outline of Approach to be used in Completing the Green Team Organization, Development, Implementation and Follow-up Tasks.
4. List of References.
5. Rate for Services.

The above information should be sent to the Nisqually Indian Tribe, 4820 She Nah Num Dr SE, Olympia, Wash. 98513. Attn: Jill Wall, Procurement Officer, by the close of business December 4, 2015.

Questions regarding the above should direct questions to Nisqually Green Team Coordinator Lynn Scroggins at (360) 456-5221, or scroggins.lynn@nisqually-nsn.gov.
